Hi Ms. Harries,

This is in regards to your below VA FOIA request.

We were not able to locate records based on the address or building name you provided, but if you'd like to search for environmental impacts in the surrounding area, please visit the GIS portion of our website and click on "What's in my Backyard?".

Pollution Response database information for 07/99 to current (approximately the last 30 days) is now available on the internet at this location:

<http://www.deq.virginia.gov/Programs/PollutionResponsePreparedness/PREPDatabaseFiles.aspx>

Anything found in the database that has been closed for over 5 years will most likely have had the paper files destroyed in accordance with the agency's file retention/destruction policy. If paper and/or electronic files do exist for an incident, they may be reviewed at the address below by appointment.

Respectfully,

Melissa Henninger
